R. & N. which is now leaving the city at 4:35 a. m., will leave at 7 o'clock p. m. and No. 45 of the same division will leave at 2 p. m. instead of 3:25 p. m. No. 6 will hereafter go to Spokane via Walla Walla and Wallula. There are no changes in the schedule of Nos. 7, 8 and 45.

ENRAGED HUSBAND SHOTS SPOUSE AND SUICIDES

Portland, July 7.—Apparently angered because his wife compared him unfavorably with her former husband, Christopher Darrow, aged 45, and a carpenter, shot and fatally wounded her and then blew out his own brains at their home in Northrup street. The tragedy was witnessed by their three year old son, who was crying, "Mamma, poor mamma," when the police arrived. The woman will die.

Commits Suicide.

Salt Lake, July 7.—William Leisenger, commonly known as "Billy Dutch," a former ball player and umpire in the Western league, committed suicide last night by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. He is survived by a daughter and a sister.

POLICE HAVE HEAVY TASKS.

ly but firmly refused to give him anything to eat or any money he hurried a volley of oaths at her. Looking the door of her home she rushed to the phone to call an officer but could obtain no response from the city hall.

More Men Needed.
According to Chief of Police Gurdane it is an impossibility to handle the situation properly with the men at his present disposal. There should be more officers, both during the day and night time and provision should be made for keeping an officer at the police station.

Much Petty Thievery.
There are also numerous complaints these days of petty thievery in the residence sections. The complaints are usually to the effect that edibles have been stolen from ice boxes left upon kitchen porches. Chickens are also meeting with disaster at the hands of the night visitors and as a result many householders have taken the policy of sleeping with a shot gun close at hand.

While many of the idle men now here are real working men out of employment and are waiting for work to start in the harvest fields, there are others in the throng who do not care for work. They are yeggmen, dope fiends, alcohol users or habitual loafers. It is these men that cause the trouble.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Hermiston Lots Sold.

By a deed recorded today, Ash Pierce has transferred to Etta Pierce lots 2 and 10 in block 9 of Hermiston.

Return From Yellowstone.

Mrs. E. P. Marshall and Miss Mary Roberts returned on the Northern Pacific train this morning from a trip of nine days to Yellowstone Park.

To Attend Forestry Meeting.

Dan P. Smythe, president of the Pendleton Commercial association, left this morning for Salem to attend a meeting of the state board of forestry of which he is a member.

Addition to Freewater.

City Attorney James P. Neal of Freewater came down this morning to file a plat of an addition to that town. The addition comprises only a block.

Perry Is Improving.

R. E. Perry, well known local barber, who has been ill with pneumonia for the past six weeks, is reported to be improving and on the road to recovery.

Revising the Date.

In the employ of the district fair board a painter has been at work altering the date on the front of the big fair pavilion. The fair this year is to be held from September 11 to 16 and the new date is being set forth on the front of the pavilion.

Nadann Will Recover.

Phil Nadann, the former Walla Walla Bear who was struck with a pitched ball in Chehalis on the Fourth, is in Portland now and is rapidly recovering from the effect of his injury. His skull was not fractured and he thinks he will be able to don a uniform again Sunday.

Three Drunks Jailed.

James Carrigan, John Carlson and Ed Bailey were added to the list of occupants of the city jail last night, all of them being arrested for being drunk. The former was given four days without the option of paying a fine and the latter each drew three days on failure to pay fines of five dollars.

Forty-four in City Jail.

The city jail last night contained forty-four prisoners, the accumulation of several days. Nearly all of the recent offenders who are brought into police court are of the transient class of undesirable citizens and with but few exceptions they take a jail sentence rather than pay their fines, either from choice or necessity.

Whitten Plays With Baker.

Mrs. "Bill" Whitten this morning received a letter from her husband stating that he is now playing shortstop with the Baker team. The schedule of the league of which that team is a member closes Sunday but all indications are, says the former Pendleton star, that another ten week schedule will be arranged. Mrs. Whitten will join her husband next Monday.

Frink to Chehalis.

It seems that "Soldier" Frink did not go to Olympia as reported several days ago. Instead, he was sojourning at Wenaha Springs, which accounts for his failure to show up to assist Athens in the celebration games against Walla Walla. He passed through Pendleton this morning en route to Portland, from where, he says, he will go to Chehalis to finish the season with the team of that city.

Wrestling Bout Tonight.

Tonight in the Oregon theater, members of the local sporting fraternity will be entertained with a wrestling bout between Kid Irish a Walla Walla bantam weight, and Harry Clarke, a local lightweight. The match will be a handicap one, the local grappler, because of his greater weight, agreeing to throw his opponent three times within an hour. Several preliminaries between local amateurs will be put on.

To Remodel Sheriff's Office.

The county court has just ordered a much needed remodeling of the sheriff's office in the court house. The partition which separates the main office from the private office will be torn out and the desks moved back so that the lighting will be better. A private office will be constructed in the south end of the present main office and entrance for the public will be through a door north of the present one.

Presbyterian Evangelist Here.

Rev. G. W. Arms, Jr., the pastor evangelist for the Presbyteries of Grande Ronde and Pendleton came in on the noon train from La Grande where he makes his home. He is on his way to Tygh Valley for a series of services during the month of July. He will be in Pendleton until morning when he will meet the chairman of the Home Mission committee, Rev. J. M. Cornelson, under whose direction he works while in the Presbytery of Pendleton territory.

Sues to Recover Horses.

H. H. Harvey has commenced suit in the local court against M. L. Fix to recover three horses or their money equivalent. He alleges in his complaint that the defendant unlawfully secured possession of the animals and refuses to return them. He asks the court to order the return of the horses to him or the payment of $400 which is their alleged value and he further asks that he be given judgment for $75 damages. Raley & Raley are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Drunkness Grounds for Divorce.

Nancy McMahon has commenced suit for a divorce from her husband, Benjamin McMahon, who is a resident of Grant county on the grounds that since their marriage he has become an habitual drunkard and by his gross intemperance has been incapacitated from work so that he does not aid in the support of herself or their thirteen-year-old child, Margaret, and has in other ways made her life miserable. She alleges they were married in Grant county in 1897. Peterson & Wilson are her attorneys.

Snapped Man Thrown from Mule.

As proof of the superiority of his new Graflex camera in catching fast pictures, Major Lee Moorhouse is exhibiting a picture which he got of the mule which threw Louis Cargill just before the wild mule race on the Fourth when that rider had the temerity to attempt to sit the animal without a saddle. The picture shows Cargill in the air and the mule just settling after his successful buck and every outline is as clear and distinct as if the picture had been secured by time exposure. The major will have the picture copyrighted.

"Hop Head" Struggles With Officers.

Considerable excitement was caused on the streets yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock by the struggles of a "hop head" with Chief Gurdane, Sheriff Taylor and D. B. Waffle, the drayman. The man started a disturbance in the Bogart saloon and was promptly ejected and was soon after arrested on the corner of Main and Webb street by Chief Gurdane. He immediately seized both of the officers' arms in a powerful grip and rendered him helpless, for besides being of burly physique, the man had an unusual strength given him by the drug. Sheriff Taylor and D. B. Waffle went to the chief's rescue and it took the combined efforts of the three to subdue the crazed man. He was taken to the city jail in a dray and this morning drew 12 days in jail for resisting an officer. His name appears on the police court docket as Frank Courlin.

"ABSOLUTE LIFE" ATTACKS PURIFIED MRS. BRIDGES

Chicago, Ill., July 7.—Denying she had ever seen any exposure of persons by "Absolute Life" disciples of Sec. at the cult's meetings, Mrs. Bridges, mother of the girl whose delinquency the revealer is alleged to have caused, testified for Sec today. She said she felt "Absolute Life" coming over her in December of 1905. "Suddenly a thrill came over me," she said, "and then joy and happiness. I felt as though I was walking above the clouds. It was 'absolute life.' It made me happy and purified me. I have since been a better woman."

MAN HUNTS FOR HIS HOME.

Wilmington, Del.—Unfolding a story more like fiction than anything that could happen in real life, a big man attired as a Western miner, who said he was known as James Grant, entered the office of the board of health today and to Secretary Malcolm he said he believed himself to be James Blondell, who was kidnapped in this city forty years ago by a roving band of Cherokee Indians, who passed through Wilmington. Grant or Blondell was searching for some clue to his parents and relatives and thought the health board records might furnish some information.

The Westerner said from the time he could remember he lived with a band of Cherokee Indians. He knew he had been stolen from his home, but did not know where it was. He learned the Indian language and speaks and writes it and was raised to all the Indian ways. Twenty years ago he deserted the tribe and began to prospect through the west for gold. He says he now owns claims worth $180,000.

Stranger Gives a Clue.
Some time ago he, with others, were sitting in a hotel in Tonopah when a man told a story of a boy who was kidnapped by Indians in Wilmington forty years ago. The boy, then only an infant, had a birthmark on the side of his nose. Grant told of his life and it was found a birthmark on his nose corresponded with the description given by the narrator of the other story.

Secretary Malcolm found that Charles Blondell died here in 1892, aged 89 years. He is thought to be Grant's or Blondell's grandfather. He also found that a sister lived here, but was married, and Grant does not know her husband's name. His parents died in the West, where they had gone to search for their stolen son.

Secretary Malcolm found that Grant in his search and will request all the health board records. Grant wept while narrating his story, and when he found there was a record of his grandfather he became much agitated.

Grants Pass, Ore., July 7.—Miss Myrna Kelly, the daughter of J. B. Kelly of San Francisco, is dead, her sister Angela is seriously injured, her mother and father are badly hurt, and her little sister, aged six, is badly burned as the result of an explosion of the gasoline tank of their automobile near Crescent City.
